Being first matters. Being recorded as first matters longer.

The Review turns a winning BOUGHT position into a page readers can return to. The claim, the broadcast, the final rank, and the attention it earned stay together.

Your issue should point back to you.

01 / ATTRIBUTION

Your public handle, website, X profile, and LinkedIn can sit with a published broadcast so readers can find your work after the issue.

02 / SHARE KIT

Every winner gets a cover, broadcast link, and compact performance line to share back to their own channels.

03 / REACH LEDGER

Issue views, cover opens, and broadcast visits remain attached to the entry so attention is visible instead of promised.

READY TO POST

"My BOUGHT position made today's Review. Read the claim, watch the broadcast, challenge the room."

BOUGHT can attribute and link to the public accounts you provide and gives you share-ready issue assets. External-platform distribution and follower growth are never guaranteed.
